Citizen Comment: No comments.

Consent Agenda:

- A. Approval of the Bills and Payroll and Minutes of the August 21, 2019 Board Meeting- Trustee Schapiro moved to approve the Bills and Payroll and Minutes of the August meeting. Trustee Hayman seconded, and it was approved by voice vote.

Information/Communications:

- A. John Devaney updated the Board about the Robert Crown Community Center (RCCC) construction. The ice rinks held a soft opening Saturday, January 11th. The City of Evanston granted RCCC a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy while construction continues throughout the building. RCCC construction costs remain on budget. Director Danczak-Lyons announced that there will be a variety of welcoming opportunities including an Opening Ceremony & Invocation on March 14th.

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion:

- A. Teri Campbell informed the Board that staff are reading the Foundations Module of Project READY with the goal of providing consistent learning opportunities and standard language with regard to matters of racial equity. Staff have access to internal discussion sessions to share insights. Trustees Hayman and Soto recommended and praised the curriculum.
- B. Campbell shared that the Racial Equity Task Force (community advisory group) made recommendations regarding EPL presence in the 5th ward and introducing/welcoming the Latinx community to the library, and provided input on the organization's equity statement for consideration.

Library Director's Report (Distributed in Advanced):

- A. Director Karen Danczak-Lyons updated the Board on searching for a future branch location to serve south Evanston in place of the Chicago Avenue-Main Street, including several sites suggested by COE.

Staff Report:

A. Administrative Services:

Campbell informed the board of hiring activity. EPL is welcoming back Miguel Ruiz as the RCCC Branch Manager, and it is extending offers on 5 other RCCC positions, plus 2 internships for ETHS students. Finances for 2019 are still being finalized, and are estimated to meet projection: revenue at 96% and expenditures at 91%.

Board Report/Development:

- A. Shawver reported that Development met goals in every area, with revenue up from last year. Trustee Patel provided an update regarding recent Friends of EPL meetings (along with Iles), stating that the group has been re-energized.
- B. Danczak-Lyons invited anyone to attend the annual Illinois Library Association Legislative Meet-Up on February, 17th, and the Evanston Community Foundation workshops (see memo in agenda packet). Trustee Hayman recommended the ECF workshops on May 18th and April 1st as relevant to the Board, and she reminded the board of their retreat on February 12th.

Unfinished Business: None

New Business:

- A. Devaney recommended approval of a Janitorial Agreement with Total Building Service. TBS is one of 3 qualified bidders for this work. TBS is the same vendor that the Main Branch has had since 2009. TBS is a Woman-Owned Business Enterprise (WBE) and complies with the City of Evanston minority goals. The bid is higher this year because of prevailing wage increases.
 - a. Trustee Schapiro moved to approve the Janitorial Agreement with TBS for FY2020 ($112,680), FY2021 ($121,740), and FY2022 ($126,240). Trustee Lurie seconded the motion, and it was approved unanimously by roll call vote.

Respectfully submitted by Teri Campbell

EDI Assessment Recommendations: 2019 efforts

1. Issue a statement that explicitly recognizes historic racism in Evanston and commits the Library to social justice. (Ongoing)

- EDI Staff Committee drafted a statement to be considered by EPL Board and in consultation with Dr. Pat Efiom - City of Evanston's Equity and Empowerment Coordinator. Please note: Dr. Efiom and the Equity Commission are drafting a statement on behalf of the City of Evanston to be presented for consideration in October, 2019.
- Racial Equity Task Force was consulted on the draft of this statement.

2. Invest in cultural competence development for EPL leadership and staff. (Ongoing)

- December, 2019 launched a mandatory, yearlong training using the Project Ready curriculum that began in January, 2020.
- Staff goals reflect a commitment to completing EDI training and reviewing their work through an equity lens.

3. Develop a talent management plan that identifies goals for hiring, developing, and promoting people of color. (Ongoing)

- Recruitment efforts expanded to place job notifications with Illinois Library Association, American Library Association Black Caucus and REFORMA (Latinx Caucus) and locally with partners such as Cherry Preschool, Evanston Township High School and Youth Job Center which serve our diverse students and families.
- Diverse staff enrolled in accredited MLIS programs and participated in tuition reimbursement.
- Job descriptions have been rewritten to attract a more diverse pool of applicants.

4. Create a group focused on equity and race composed of Library staff and community members. (Ongoing)

- Attracted over 40 residents interested in joining our EDI Task Force, interviewed and met with more than 20 residents before selecting the first cohort.
- Established the Racial Equity Task Force (RETF) comprised of 8 community members, 2 library trustees, and 4 staff persons. The RETF began meeting as often as twice per month in the fall.

5. Create and use metrics to assess and adjust efforts in support of the Library's EDI values. (Ongoing)

- Staff are discussing metrics that can be tracked that reflect improvement over time.
- Surveying other public libraries to review their approaches. Pat Efiom and the Equity Commission will be presenting a metrics methodology for consideration in October, 2019.

6. Create an innovative approach to space and services in Fifth Ward. (Ongoing)

- Presented library program highlights (Summer Reading Program and Tech Training) to Evanston Own It Ministers
- Engaged in conversations about library service in the Fifth ward with residents and business leaders during door to door visits; at Junior WildKits Awards Ceremony; small group conversations at First Slice and with volunteer coaches that support athletes in a number of sports.
- Shared inventory of EPL programs produced in the 5th Ward with Alderman.
- Continued discussions with groups seeking to redefine the future of Family Focus facility.
- Continued to provide an electronic Pop-Up library at Fleetwood Jourdain Community Center.
- EPL has enhanced our presence in the 5th Ward through partnerships with Y.O.U., Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, Evanston Own It, Fleetwood-Jourdain Community Center, Family Focus, Gibbs-Morrison Cultural Center, Freedom School, Teen Baby Nursery (IWSE), Home Daycare Provider Book Bag Delivery (4 daycare homes), YMCA Headstart, EvanSTEM, and Connections for the Homeless, Jacob Blake Manor, and Ebenezer Primm Tower.
- Provided access to library services via the mobile library at church picnics (Bethel AME, 1st Church of God), block parties, and Jr. Wildkits practices and home games.
- Successfully piloted Neighborhood Resource Center at Family Focus location. Included kickoff event and 3 subsequent learning sessions on topics of law. Additional sessions scheduled through summer 2020 at Family Focus, with 2nd location in 9th Ward in planning phase.
- Began weekly after school programming with Family Focus middle school students. Activities include book discussions and arts projects.
- Planned to launch digital music workshops after school with middle school students at Family Focus to begin in March 2020.
- Produced middle school arcade design STEM camp session at Foster building in partnership with Family Focus and MetaMedia @ Foster.

7. Expand book collections that reflect the needs and interests of the Black and Latinx communities. (Ongoing)

- In 2018 began to track book purchases of Black authors and subject matter. The total number of purchased titles (not number of copies) was 447. This did not include Urban and Romance titles. In 2019 we expanded to include those genres as well.
- The 101 Great Books for Kids 2019 list (<https://www.epl.org/the-101-great-books-for-kids-2019-edition-is-here/>) was released in November of 2019. This list exemplifies the wide diversity and variety of children's literature published that year.
- To better meet the needs of our Spanish-speaking populations, two staff members will be placed in charge of our Spanish language collections. Mariana Priscilla Bojorquez, our Latino Outreach Librarian, will be purchasing Adult materials. She has already made a trip to the Guadalajara Book Fair in Mexico to find materials.
- Betsy served on the library's inaugural EDI Committee and will continue to do so in the future.
- Betsy wrote a blog post about solving the problem of finding books by people with lived experience (a.k.a. #ownvoices). You may view the post here: <http://blogs.slj.com/afuse8production/2019/01/02/the-real-way-to-get-ownvoices-books-into-the-hands-of-readers-but-its-not-sexy/>
- Opening Day collection of materials from Robert Crown branch will include both English and Spanish languages and culturally inclusive books and materials.
- All displays are made with an eye on being equitable. After making a display on Indigenous #ownvoices, a patron wrote to us saying, "I am writing to extend appreciation, gratitude and delight about my experience today. As I entered the library and headed toward the kids section, I stopped in my tracks because the carousel "Decolonize your bookshelf" caught my attention. . . . To see this collection, front and center, in a month other than November (Native Heritage month) warms my heart and spirit and I know will delight other Native and Indigenous people who may see their reflection, inspire future writers and readers, and feel welcomed in this space. Personally, and on behalf of the Center for Native American and Indigenous Research, thank you for helping create visibility and making space for Native and Indigenous writers. It means so much."

8. Continue supporting culture-specific engagement specialists. (Ongoing)

- Hired new Latino Engagement Librarian.
- Submitted grant proposal to fund additional support for culture-specific engagement work.
- Recruited and hired bi-lingual Supervising Librarian to lead team at Robert Crown Branch Library. (Additional Spanish speaking support staff offer letters are forthcoming.)

9. Shift the focus of communications from the multitude of programs and services to engagement. (Ongoing)

- In small group discussions, partner meetings and one-on-one conversations throughout Evanston, residents and partners were invited to co-create library services in the 5th ward, at Robert Crown and at all library locations.
- Worked with Racial Equity Task Force, and sought new ways to communicate with Black and LatinX residents.
- Began recording of episodes of The Checkout podcast, featuring the diverse spectrum of Evanston people living and/or working in Evanston and thereby giving voice to the community.

10. Embed EDI into the Library's ongoing communication strategy. (Ongoing)

- Work of the Engagement team, marketing and Library Director focused upon deeper engagement with all Evanston residents especially the Black and Latinx community members.
- Worked with Racial Equity Task Force and sought new ways to communicate with Black and LatinX residents.
- Hosted pop-up library at St. Francis Hospital in an effort to explore equitable access to services in the 8th Ward.

Library Director's Report February 19, 2020

Updates:

- The current issue of Public Libraries magazine explores Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Social Justice. Our work is featured in the article "Stepping Forward and Turning Outward for Racial Equity." I am proud of the work that EPL continues to do and the progress being made.
- I will be sharing our EDI work on a national webinar in March that is being produced by library vendor Cengage.
- My thanks to Trustee Ben Schapiro for joining me at the ILA Legislative breakfast in Buffalo Grove. As a result of a conversation at my table with Representative Gong Gershowitz's staff, EPL will begin to host regular "office hours" for a number of local elected officials at EPL.

Cardboard Carnival

On Saturday, January 25, the library hosted the "Cardboard Carnival" event in the lobby and children's area. The event featured carnival style games created by middle school students using cardboard, programmable microcontrollers, sensors, motors, and other everyday materials. Children and families were invited to play the games and vote on their favorites with over 100 people in attendance. The event was a partnership between EvanSTEM, MetaMedia, NU Engineering Gradstudent Association, and the Library.

Library staff were involved with the creation of this event from the beginning. Tyler Works worked with Kirby Callam on the development of the initial idea and planning. Tyler also worked with Kirby and NU Gradstudents and PhD candidates to plan monthly workshops targeted towards 7th and 8th graders underrepresented in STEM fields where NU and middle students work in small groups on their cardboard games together. MetaMedia primarily planned workshops for underrepresented 6th graders. In addition to these targeted programs, Tyler and Kirby also planned workshops at the main library. These workshops were open to all middle school students. The Cardboard Carnival served as a successful model for potential future events that includes both targeted programming and citywide participation with a showcase open to the public.

January 4 & January 11: Language Cafe: 25 Adults & 30 Adults respectively. (Halka & Katy Jacob) Several people attended both January meetings as well as several new faces at both.

January 7: Go Tell It On the Mountain Movie Screening, 79 Adults, Main Library (Heather Ross). Many more people attended than signed up. There was applause after the movie. People talked about it in comparison to the novel. One person (who was not part of Mission Impossible) approached me and told me how grateful she was that we were showing this film. She had read the book herself. She did not know anything about Mission Impossible. I told her about it and gave her my card, and I encouraged her to join one of the groups for future Baldwin discussions. She was very excited.

January 7: Keepin It Real: Brain on Fire: 3 Adults, discussed the book Brain on Fire by Susannah Cahalan. (Katy Jacob)

Two new faces, one regular. One woman came because she had read the book (and loved it) a year or two earlier. Another woman came because she has early onset dementia and found the subject matter fascinating. We also went over some info about Read 2020 and 2 of the 3 people in attendance also took a book with them for Read 2020. Sending reminder emails to attempt to boost attendance.

January 8: SciFi Book Group: (Lorena Neal) 11 adults met at The Celtic Knot for our 4th Annual "New Year, New Books" meeting, where members (and newcomers) can share their recommendations for their favorite sci-fi and fantasy books. It was a lively and fun discussion. As usual, I took notes on all of the recommendations, and published the results on our blog: <https://eplscififantasy.wordpress.com/2020/01/16/4th-annual-new-year-new-books-recommendations/> The group continues to enjoy engaging in our Facebook group on topics related to the books we have read and other science fiction/fantasy news.

January 12: Chicago Quarterly Review Author Reading, 61 Adults, Main Library (Heather Ross) After the event, a patron said: "Where can I find out about more events like this?" I told him how to get to our events page on the library's website.

January 18: Bookmaking & Poetry Workshop: 10 attendees, 6 adults and 4 children. (Jamillah Hinson)

Artist Lea Basile Lazarus and poet Sue Gundlach held a workshop that allowed attendees to create their own poetry, work with found poetry, and create books or zines about their experiences. This program, and the accompanying exhibition, was part of the City's 100th Anniversary of the ratification of the 19th amendment, specifically focusing on community unrest and resistance. This program touched on both Access and Learning & Literacy, in relation to how we can express thoughts and opinions in ways outside of traditional speech or writing. A few of the participants were active in community organizing. Lea Basile brought in some of her classes to tour the exhibit after the workshop.

January 20: Northwestern/CIAS: 109 attendees (Lorena Neal)

On January 20, (Martin Luther King Day), Lorena Neal worked with Danny Postel, the Assistant Director for the Center for International and Area Studies at Northwestern (and our MENA contact), to present a panel discussion on current non-violent protest movements around the world. Mr. Postel moderated the panel, which included Loubna El Amine, who teaches political science at Northwestern, discussing the protests in her native Lebanon; Daniel Borzutzky, who teaches writing and Latin American and Latino Studies at UIC, discussing the protests in his native Chile; and William Hurst, who teaches political science at Northwestern, discussing the protests in Hong Kong; Kaveh Ehsani, Assistant Professor International Studies and Critical Ethnic Studies at DePaul, discussing his native Iran (as well as Iraq); and Shailja Sharma, who is Professor of International Studies, Refugee and Forced Migration Studies, Critical Ethnic Studies, and Global Asian Studies at DePaul University, discussing the recent protests in India. The program was attended by 109 people, and many expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to learn more about the international protest movements, and for the quality of the participating panelists. Northwestern is turning the program into a podcast, which Lorena will share as soon as it is available. There were also several requests from attendees for copies of her opening remarks on Martin Luther King Day, which should be included in the podcast, and which I can provide the text for when the podcast is ready for distribution.

January 27: Youth Technology Corps students installed 2 rebuilt desktop computers at both Jacob Blake Manor and Ebenezer Primm Tower as part of an ongoing partnership between the ETHS student organization and EPL.

February 3: Identity Theft Solutions in partnership with First Northern Credit Union, 10 attendees (Susan Markwell) Everyone who attended seemed to have a personal anecdote to share about identity theft, and presenter Pete Punito led a discussion group around tactics for protecting one's information and money, and what to do if you suspect your information has been compromised. There were many good questions and discussions.

SCORE Small Business Mentoring - During the month of January, there were 19 mentoring sessions credited to Evanston Public Library. This continues to be a popular service - our mentors were recently interviewed by the Daily Northwestern <https://dailynorthwestern.com/2020/01/09/city/business-mentors-offer-free-advising-sessions-to-ewanston-small-business-managers/>

Readability: 10-11 adults meet weekly on Monday afternoons (Jeny Mills)
Readability is a read-aloud book group for adults with developmental disabilities that was initially formed in conjunction with Center For Independent Futures. We began the book ASH PRINCESS by Laura Sebastian this month, which the group is enjoying. We had a group discussion at the beginning of this session about expanding our reading selections beyond fiction and perhaps exploring some titles that are history or biography. We will add some non-fiction choices when deciding on our next title.

READ 2020: 19 patrons have completed the January challenge as of 2/3/2020. (Katy Jacob)
Received requests for a digital list - did this for February. Have recently received requests to have the list available prior to the beginning of the month.

Free Book Distribution: We distributed 1600 books to the FBD sites in January. We added one new site this month - a laundromat on Howard Street.

Legal Self-Help Center: 9 attendees in January (Lorena Neal)
Weekly drop-in time for assistance with Illinois Legal Aid Online (ILAO) on Tuesdays from 1-3 PM, through February 25. This project is intended to increase patron awareness of EPL's partnership with Illinois Legal Aid Online, and to assist patrons with navigating the ILAO website. This website can be used to research the law, legal rights, and how to go to court, as well as to generate forms to be filed in Illinois courts. During January, we had 9 patrons attend. Lorena was able to spend extended time (45 minutes to 1 hour) with each patron, and answer many of their legal information questions.

Excerpts from Patron feedback:

From LLL Librarian Heather Ross: One of the patrons who won a gift card for our Community Picks Film Recommendation raffle, told me how wonderful our library was. He said: "I have been to a lot of libraries, and yours is the best. The movies you show are amazing. Even the staff go out of their way to help people." And he named several instances when staff got up and walked patrons over to the stacks or helped them on computers.

From an email to LLL Library Susan Markwell:

"Good evening Susan, Thank you! You have discovered what my husband and I had long forgotten...that he used his email address to initially help me set up my hoopla account. I cannot tell you what your help means to me. While I have long enjoyed EPL physical books, I have come to especially rely on your audio books as a busy new mom. I find hoopla to be a wonderful alternative to Amazon audible. Thank you very much not only for your time this past Saturday, but also for your thoughtful follow up to bring resolution to my problem. I just borrowed a new title and I'm excited to start listening to it tonight! Thank you again for your help."

LLL Librarian Lorena Neal received an email from one of my science fiction & fantasy group regulars, who was unable to attend the New Year, New Books meeting due to illness, but wanted to share her recommendations for the list I was compiling. She said "Thank you, as always, for creating such an amazing group. It's really one of the highlights of my month to get to talk about books with the club every month and it's really thanks to you for being our fearless leader and building such a nice community space that it works so well."

From an email sent by a Children's volunteer:

"That (Drag Queen Story Time) was such an amazing morning. I had a lot of fun listening to the stories and doing the crafts with children. I always enjoy the time volunteering in EPL! I will also be there for this Friday's event."

From another Children’s volunteer: “It was a great morning, and so much fun to see the kids dancing, doing the craft and enjoying the story time. We saw two girls meet doing the craft, and by the end I think their parents were exchanging information for a playdate! EPL is a very special place.”

Memorandum

To: Evanston Public Library Board of Trustees
From: Teri Campbell, Assistant Director
Subject: Administrative Services Update
Date: February 14, 2020

This memo provides an update on significant administrative activities.

Human Resources

In Access Services, Keelin Molloy has joined the team as a Clerk. Interviews are underway for a Library Assistant, while a second one is posted for the Early Learning & Literacy department. In Engagement Services there is considerable movement. Robert Crown staffing is nearing completion. Rosario Camargo, Beatriz Echeverria and Kellye Fleming have accepted positions as Branch Assistants; and Daisy Tellez and Rolinda Stevenson as Clerks. Interviews are underway for two Library Interns. Elsewhere in the branch system, a Branch Assistant, Clerk, and Community Engagement Library Assistant vacancy are in process. The Lifelong Learning & Literacy team welcomed Halka. In addition, we have posted a call for Public Service Substitutes in order to cover public desk emergencies and vacancies on a regular basis.

Financial Resources

The Library Fund financial report for the period ending December 31st is included in this meeting packet for your review. As we close out the 2019 budget and prepare to report final review and expenditure numbers, note that revenue exceeded expenditure levels in the three funds as follows:

The financial report for the period ending January 31st is also attached for your review which includes expenditures at approximately 5% of budget projection.

A summary of the Endowment portfolio as of January 31st is included for your reference.

Facilities Update

Robert Crown Community Center construction is steadily advancing and on budget. EPL move-in is underway. Our shelving delivery/installation is largely complete with the collection materials scheduled for arrival. The City of Evanston has scheduled an Opening Ceremony and Invocation for Saturday, March 14th. EPL will host welcoming opportunities for the community beginning early March.

Memorandum

To: Evanston Public Library Board of Trustees

From: Karen Danczak-Lyons
Executive Director

Subject: Transition Procedures and Policy

Date: February 14, 2020

The Administrative Team of the Evanston Public Library believes that human diversity leads to innovation. We value and support our employees' lived experiences and respect their right to work openly and authentically as themselves. In order to create a safe and productive workplace environment for all employees and potential employees, we recommend the Library Board adopt the Evanston Public Library Workplace Transition Policy. With this proposed policy, we are explicitly stating that our employees have the right to assert their gender identity, characteristics, or expression without fear of consequences by the Evanston Public Library and that we will support our employees before, during and after their gender transition. It is our intention to extend these same courtesies to our patrons.

This document is adapted from Mozilla workplace transition policy guidelines

Evanston Public Library's Workplace Transition Policy

Human diversity leads to innovation, which is a key value of our work at the Evanston Public Library. We know that there's no one way to be transgender and there's no one right way to come out at work. However, know that we will support you through this process in a way that is comfortable for you. We will protect your privacy and confidentiality. We will also protect people who report to you.

The intended audiences for this document are Evanston Public Library employees transitioning their gender in the workplace, managers and colleagues of people who are transitioning, and interested Evanstonians.

Definitions and concepts

These definitions, adapted from the Berkeley Lab Workplace Gender Transition Guidelines, are not intended to label employees, but rather to assist in understanding this policy and the legal obligations of employers. Employees may or may not use these terms to describe themselves. For more information on terminology, visit the National Center for Transgender Equality's website. Evanston Public Library recognizes that the terms and definitions around gender and identity are themselves fluid and changing and support an individual's right to choose the best language to describe themselves.

- Gender identity: A person's internal, deeply felt sense of being male, female, or something other or in-between, regardless of the sex they were assigned at birth. Everyone has a gender identity.
- Gender expression: An individual's characteristics and behaviors (such as appearance, dress, mannerisms, speech patterns, and social interactions) that may be perceived as masculine, feminine, both, or neither.
- Cisgender: An umbrella term that describes people whose gender identity and/or expression corresponds to their sex assigned at birth.
- Transgender: An umbrella term used to describe people whose gender identity and/or expression is different from their sex assigned at birth.
 - A person whose sex assigned at birth was female but who identifies as male is a transgender man.
 - A person whose sex assigned at birth was male but who identifies as female is a transgender woman.
 - Some people described by this definition don't consider themselves transgender—they may use other words, or may identify simply as a man or woman. Evanston Public Library prohibits discrimination on the basis of gender, sex, and gender expression regardless of whether someone identifies as transgender.

- Gender non-conforming: This term refers to individuals whose gender identity or expression exists outside of the gender binary of woman or man. This includes, for example, nonbinary, gender-fluid, gender creative, genderqueer, gender non-conforming, and agender people.

This figure, produced by TransFocus, illustrates the spectrums of sex assigned at birth, gender identity, gender expression, and sexual orientation.

It is important to note that everyone has a:

- Sex assigned at birth
- Gender identity
- Gender expression
- Sexual orientation

Here are a few more definitions:

- Transition: The process some transgender people go through to begin living as the gender with which they identify, rather than the sex assigned to them at birth. This may or may not include changes in name and pronoun, bathroom and facility usage, participation in activities such as sports teams, hormone therapy, gender confirmation surgeries, or other medical procedures. There are many different ways to transition. For some people, it is a complex process that takes place over a long period of time, while for others it is a one- or two-step process that happens more quickly. Transition may include coming out (telling family, friends, and coworkers); changing the name and/or sex on legal documents; and, for many transgender people, accessing medical treatment such as hormones and surgery.
- Sexual orientation: Refers to the identities or groups of identities you are attracted to sexually. Straight, gay, and bisexual are some ways to describe sexual orientation. It is important to note that sexual orientation is distinct from gender identity and expression. Transgender people can be gay, lesbian, bisexual, or straight, just like cisgender people.
- LGBT: A common abbreviation that refers to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community.

Reporting harassment

Discrimination based on gender identity or expression is not tolerated at Evanston Public Library. Derogatory, hurtful, or harmful language is not tolerated. This includes deliberately referring to someone by a gender that they do not identify with, and/or questioning the legitimacy of an individual's gender identity. This could also include being dead named (using someone's birth name instead of their chosen name) or not respecting a person's pronouns. If you experience or witness harassment, please report it.

Rights and responsibilities

There are rights, expectations, and responsibilities of each party associated with a transition in the workplace. It is essential that open and honest communication be established to build trust for each party. With each right also comes responsibility or an expectation. A successful transition in the workplace can occur only with commitment and understanding of each involved part.

Transitioning individual

If you are the transitioning employee, you have the right to work openly and authentically. This means that you may express your gender identity, characteristics, or expression without fear of consequences by the Evanston Public Library.

It is important for you to advocate for yourself. You are not required to tell anyone at the Evanston Public Library; however, if you choose to disclose, the first step is to inform key personnel who can assist you. Your initial point of contact may be your supervisor, another member of the Administrative Team or the library's social worker. Note that if you choose to disclose, at some point, your immediate supervisor, manager, or HR representative will become part of your support team.

Remember, Evanston Public Library employees are covered under the City of Evanston's Healthy Workplace policy and Personnel Manual (section 3.4), but Evanston Public Library must be aware of your situation in order to provide support. Explain your intentions, needs, and concerns to your supervisor or support person. In reporting any situation where you are not feeling comfortable at work, it helps your manager or support person to understand what result or change you wish to see. In addition, the library's social worker can support you with resources or by being an additional support and resource for your manager and team.

Managers

Evanston Public Library's culture supports diversity and inclusion. If someone who reports to you informs you of their desire to transition, or if an individual in your workplace is currently in the transition process, your support is critical. Below are tips to reflect your support:

- If you are unfamiliar with the transition process, use the coaching and resources available to you through the Admin Team to become familiar with this process.
- For supervisors, you should also use these guidelines to further educate your staff.

- Listen carefully to what the individual is telling you and how they'd like to be treated (Do they want to keep their transition as quiet as possible or do they wish to celebrate publicly?)
- When meeting with the transitioning individual about their needs and concerns, remain respectful and open-minded.

If you oversee, manage or lead an employee who is transitioning, it is important that you demonstrate an understanding of (and use a sensitive approach to) their needs and concerns. It may be challenging for transitioning individuals to make themselves vulnerable to a person upon whom their job depends. Make it clear that you will not gossip and only share information where there is a legitimate need to know. Managers should use discretion and be as confidential and discreet as possible. For example, if you need to contact Human Resources, do not copy extraneous people to the email. Before referring to your employee by their new name or pronouns on an email list or other communication channel, confirm with them that this is appropriate. Explain questions and concerns you might have and ask their opinion on matters covered in subsequent sections of this document and the "Creating a Plan" Worksheet. Be prepared to have open conversations with your staff to answer any of their questions regarding the transition process.

Evanston Public Library requires all managers and colleagues to use the transitioning individual's correct gender pronouns. Please note that pronouns are not limited to "she" or "he," but can also include other non-binary pronouns such as "they" or "ze."

Developing a plan

Discuss the expected timeline with the transitioning employee:

- When the individual will begin their transition at work. This will probably be the point at which the individual begins to present in accordance with their gender identity, including change of name, pronouns, dress, grooming, appearance, and restroom use.
- When to inform various stakeholders.
- Anticipated time off required for medical treatment, if known. Since benefits may vary depending on coverage, contact the Human Resources department for more information.

Addressing concerns of coworkers and patrons

If you are a supervisor, you can reference the guidelines contained in this document when communicating about transition-related topics with your team. If additional questions or concerns arise that are not covered by these guidelines, you can use the Additional Resources at the end of this document, as well as speak to the other members of the Admin Team about the specific questions. If patrons have concerns, they should be directed to a member of the Admin Team.

Co-workers

Evanston Public Library's workplace values require that all employees treat one another with dignity and respect. This includes the requirement that all managers and colleagues use a transitioning individual's correct gender pronouns. Please note that pronouns are not limited to "she" or "he," but can also include other non-binary pronouns such as "they" or "ze."

All EPL employees should familiarize themselves with the points made in the brochure Tips for Working with Transgender Co-workers.

If an employee has questions or concerns about the topics covered in this document, they should speak to their supervisor or another member of the Admin Team. They should not expect a transitioning colleague to answer their questions about transgender issues.

Specific policies and guidelines

Privacy

Transgender employees have the right to discuss their gender identity or expression openly, or to keep that information private. The transgender employee gets to decide when, with whom, and how much to share their private information.

We expect Evanston Public Library employees to respect the privacy of all individuals, including transgender individuals.

Management and coworkers should not disclose information that may reveal an employee's transgender status or gender non-conforming presentation to others who do not have a legitimate need to know. For example, a transitioning employee may choose to disclose to coworkers but keep this information private from library patrons.

Names and pronouns

An employee should be addressed by the name and pronoun that correspond to the employee's gender identity, upon request; a court-ordered name or gender change is not required. The intentional or persistent refusal to respect an employee's gender identity (for example, intentionally referring to the employee by a name or pronoun that does not correspond to the employee's gender identity) can constitute harassment and is a violation of EPL's policies. If you are unsure what pronoun a transitioning coworker might use, you can politely ask your coworker how they would like to be addressed.

Official records

Evanston Public Library will change an employee's official record to reflect a change in name or gender upon request from the employee. Certain types of records, like those relating to payroll and retirement accounts, may require a legal name change before the person's name can be changed. Evanston Public Library may also not be legally able to change some records. Many records, however, can be changed to reflect a person's name without proof of a legal name change. For specifics, see Creating a Plan worksheet.

We will update any photographs that the transitioning employee identifies in the workplace that are Evanston Public Library's possession and that Evanston Public Library has the right to unilaterally alter, so the transitioning employee's gender identity and expression are represented. If a new or transitioning employee has questions about library records or ID documents, the employee should contact the Assistant Director.

Restroom access

At Evanston Public Library locations, transitioning employees have the right to use the restroom that corresponds to the employee's gender identity or gender expression, regardless of the employee's sex assigned at birth. The transitioning employee knows their gender better than the person objecting does.

Creating a plan

A plan can help facilitate a smooth transition process. The Creating a Plan \(CAP\) Worksheet lists potential items of consideration for the transitioning employee, along with estimated timelines. Please note that not all gender transition "steps" occur in the same way, or in the same order. Some items in the CAP sheet may happen in a different way or order, depending on the individual's particular situation. The CAP sheet merely functions as an overview of various steps that an individual might consider in the gender transition process. It is not intended as a definitive document or a checklist that requires strict adherence.

Putting together a stakeholders list

If you are a transitioning individual, you might consider the following questions related to stakeholders:

- Who are all the people (internal and external) that you may need to engage at some point during your transition?
- When do they need to be engaged?
- Are there any specific issues that must be addressed sooner rather than later?

Creating a timeline

As a transitioning employee, it can be useful to review a list of possible action items to consider before transitioning. These steps can be tailored according to the individual's own time frame and are just a suggestion of one way to approach transitioning at work. If you are a transitioning employee and need assistance with developing your plan, contact your supervisor or the library's social worker.

At some point in the process, the transitioning individual may want to legally change their name. For more information on legal identity change in the US, refer to the document ID Please from the Transgender Law Center.

Creating a plan worksheet

The Creating a Plan worksheet, based on Appendix A of the Berkeley Lab Guidelines, is a list of potential items to consider, along with estimated timelines. Please note that not all gender transition "steps" occur in the same way, or in the same order. Some items in the Creating a Plan (CAP) sheet may occur in a different way or order, depending on the individual's particular situation. The CAP worksheet merely functions as an overview of various steps that an individual might consider in the gender transition process. It is not intended as a definitive document or a checklist that requires strict adherence.

Additional considerations when creating your plan

The following are additional considerations for the transitioning employee:

- Which of these possible steps are important to you? Do you want to come out at work? Not telling people is an option, too.
- Consider any unintended consequences. For example, a new subscriber ID from your insurance company may result in cancellation of pending claims, preauthorization approvals, or dependent claims, and/or may impact your selected primary care physician.
- When will you need to process any necessary changes to other items, such as professional licenses, publications, degrees, credentials, etc.?

- Search for your current name in various Evanston Public Library web pages or other references. Which references would you like to have altered or removed?
- Informing your supervisor: if and when you feel comfortable and safe to come out. Not telling people at work is an option, too.
- Informing the people you work with: if and when you feel comfortable and safe to come out. Not telling people at work is an option, too. How would you like your team to find out about your transition (for example, a letter, a face-to-face meeting, individual discussions, your supervisor explaining)? If in person, who do you want in the room?
- Coming out—telling everyone who works with you (collaborators, patrons, external partners, relevant communities): if and when you feel comfortable and safe to come out. Not telling people at work is an option, too. How would you like to inform your stakeholders, patrons, and/or partners?

Key Terms

Gender Identity

A person's internal, deeply-felt sense of being male, female, something other, or in-between. We all have a gender identity.

Gender Expression

An individual's characteristics and behaviors such as appearance, dress, mannerisms, speech patterns, and social interactions that are perceived as masculine or feminine.

Transgender

An umbrella term that describes people whose gender identity and/or gender expression is different from their birth assigned gender. Transgender women are people who transition from male-to-female (MTF). Transgender men are people who transition from female-to-male (FTM).

Gender Non-Conforming

Gender non-conforming people have, or are perceived to have, gender characteristics that do not conform to traditional or societal expectations.

Transition

The process of changing genders from one's birth assigned gender to one's gender identity. There are many different ways to transition. For some people, it is a complex process that takes place over a long period of time, while for others it is a one- or two-step process that happens more quickly. Transition may include social aspects such as:

- "Coming out": telling one's family, friends, and/or co-workers
- Legal aspects changing one's name and/or sex on legal documents
- Medical aspects such as accessing hormone therapy or possibly medically necessary surgical procedures.

Not all transgender people access medical care as part of their gender transition. Whether they do so does not make their gender transition any less real.

Transgender Law Center changes law, policy, and attitudes so that all people can live safely, authentically, and free from discrimination regardless of their gender identity or expression.

Tips for Working with Transgender Coworkers

An information and resource publication for employees

Tips for Working with Transgender Coworkers

Transgender people are employed in every industry and profession throughout the country, and deserve a safe and inclusive workplace. Although employment discrimination based on gender identity is illegal almost everywhere, many transgender people still face harassment and unfair treatment on the job. Helping to ensure that your workplace is free of discrimination and harassment is very simple. The following tips can help you comply with the law while making your workspace safe and welcoming for all employees.

1. DEMONSTRATE RESPECT. Transgender coworkers do not expect any special treatment. They simply want to be respected. Treating a transgender coworker with respect means addressing them by the name and pronoun that reflects their gender identity. Unless they tell you otherwise, transgender women want to be referred to with the pronouns “she” and “her” and transgender men want to be referred to with the pronouns “he” and “him.” If you are unsure of what pronoun to use, you can politely ask your coworker how they would like to be addressed. Also, just like all coworkers, transgender people do not want other employees talking about them behind their backs or making fun of them. Treat your coworkers the way you would want to be treated at work.

2. RECOGNIZE THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN YOUR PERSONAL VALUES AND THE COMMUNITY VALUES OF YOUR WORKPLACE. Some people have political, cultural, and/or religious objections to someone being transgender. Being professional and respectful to a transgender coworker does not require abandoning these beliefs. It does, however, mean that you may not act upon them in the workplace and instead that you uphold common workplace values of dignity and respect for all your coworkers. Transgender and non-transgender employees want to be treated respectfully; the best way to do that is to separate out private values from workplace conduct.

3. RESPECT YOUR COWORKER’S CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY. Many non-transgender people have a lot of questions about their transgender coworker’s gender transition. However, it is inappropriate to ask a coworker – transgender or not – questions about their private medical history, such as whether they have had surgery. It is likely that some coworkers feel comfortable enough with one another to discuss private issues, but it is important that you not assume that your transgender coworker will want to discuss their private health care matters with you if you ask. Instead allow your coworker to initiate any conversation about their transition. And if they do share such information with you, remember to keep it private and not discuss it with others unless you are told that it is OK to do so.

4. DON’T ASSUME THAT YOUR TRANSGENDER COWORKERS KNOW EVERYTHING ABOUT ALL TRANSGENDER ISSUES. While some transgender coworkers may have a special interest in discussing transgender-related issues, others may not. It might make sense to you to discuss a news story or movie about a transgender issue with your coworker. The same might be true if you have a question about a transgender civil rights or medical issue. Before doing so, however, make sure that your coworker really wants to discuss these things. What you may find is that they have other shared interests with you that they’d much rather discuss. Just because someone is transgender does not mean that they wish to discuss every transgender-related issue that may arise.

5. HELP COWORKERS WHO ARE HAVING TROUBLE WITH ANOTHER EMPLOYEE’S TRANSITION. Sometimes one of your non-transgender coworkers may have difficulty showing respect to their transgender coworker. Others may mistakenly use the transgender coworker’s old name out of habit and may need to be gently reminded about the new name or pronoun. Other times, the person may have trouble separating their personal values from the community values of the workplace. In those instances, it is helpful if you talk to them about how their behavior affects not only your transgender coworker, but you as well. This will help them understand that their actions have larger consequences than they may know.

Memorandum

To: Evanston Public Library Board of Trustees

From: Teri Campbell, Assistant Library Director

Subject: Approval of 2019 Illinois Public Library Annual Report

Date: February 14, 2020

The Illinois State Library is the agency charged by the Illinois Compiled Statutes (ILCS) to: (1) compile, preserve and publish public library statistical information [15 ILCS 320/7(m)], and (2) compile the annual report of local public libraries and library systems submitted to the State Librarian pursuant to law [15 ILCS 320/7(n)]. This information is collected through each library's Illinois Public Library Annual Report (IPLAR) and is due by March 31st.

The draft IPLAR for 2019 and the accompanying ILLINET report are attached for the Board's consideration. I recommend approval of the IPLAR and ILLINET report for submission to the Illinois State Library.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN AND RECIPROCAL BORROWING STATISTICAL SURVEY FY 2019 (July 1, 2018 - June 30,
EVANSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

ILLINET

PURPOSES

The Illinois State Library, a division of the Illinois Office of the Secretary of State, is the agency responsible for the collection, comparison, and analysis of statewide interlibrary loan and reciprocal borrowing statistical data. Annually the Illinois State Library prepares and distributes the ILLINET Interlibrary Loan and Reciprocal Borrowing Statistical Survey in order to collect statewide interlibrary loan and reciprocal borrowing transaction data. The data collected is compared and analyzed for use within Illinois.

Illinois citizens are uniquely advantaged in the resource sharing model created and enhanced by Illinois libraries. The infrastructure upon which this system of resource sharing has been established is called ILLINET (The Illinois Library and Information Network). ILLINET is the cooperative multitype (academic, public, school, and special) network of Illinois libraries that work toward a common goal: optimizing resource sharing through seamless boundaries in order to provide quality service to the end user. Statewide resource sharing is further enhanced via the statewide delivery infrastructure, ILDS (The Illinois Library Delivery Service) and regional library system delivery.

The monitoring of the interlibrary loan and reciprocal borrowing traffic that flows seamlessly from library to library is paramount in measuring and evaluating the: (1) number of requests initiated, filled, and unfilled; (2) methods of requesting as borrowers and lenders; (3) impact of resource sharing options [interlibrary loan and reciprocal borrowing]; (4) effectiveness of statewide delivery; (5) trends that provide directions for addressing statewide needs, initiatives, and programs; and, (6) collaborative efforts of every individual Illinois library as a proactive partner in sharing resources throughout the multitype Illinois library community.

Libraries are required by statute [75 ILCS 5/4-10(1)(9), 75 ILCS 16/30-65(a)(6)] to provide an itemized statement of operating receipts. "Operating receipts" are the monies received and utilized during the library's fiscal year to support the provision of ongoing, day-to-day library services. Only include funds received during the report period. If the library was awarded a grant, but only received part of the funds during the report period, report only the portion of the grant received, not the whole amount of the grant.

Exclude revenue for major capital expenditures, contributions to endowments, revenue passed through to another agency, funds unspent in previous fiscal years (e.g. carryover), and tax anticipation warrants.

NOTE: Round answers to the nearest whole dollar.

For example, include receipts from: local property taxes (library taxes), impact fees (IL Highway Code), the Mobile Home Local Services Tax Act. Safeguarding of Library Funds

This section requests information to verify that libraries meet the statutory required minimum level of insurance for library funds [75 ILCS 5/4-9 and 75 ILCS 16/30-45(e)]. According to these statutes, "the library shall provide the Illinois State Library a copy of the library's certificate of insurance at the time the library's annual report is filed."

For municipalities of less than 500,000 population, 75 ILCS 5/4-9 requires that the bond be "...not less than 50% of the total funds received by the library in the last fiscal year..." or the insurance policy or other insurance instrument's coverage "...shall be in an amount at least equal to 50% of the average amount of the library's operating fund from the prior 3 fiscal years."

For public library districts, 75 ILCS 16/30-45(e) requires that the bond be "...based upon a minimum of 50% of the total funds received by the district in the last previous fiscal year..." or the insurance policy or other insurance instrument's coverage "... shall be in an amount at least equal to 50% of the average amount of the district's operating fund from the prior 3 fiscal years."

"Operating expenditures" are the current and recurrent costs necessary to support the provision of library services.

Include: Significant costs, especially benefits and salaries, that are paid by other taxing agencies (government agencies with the authority to levy tax) "on behalf of" the library may be included if the information is available to the reporting agency. Only such funds that are supported by expenditure documents (such as invoices, contracts, payroll records, etc.) at the point of disbursement should be included.

Exclude: Do not report the value of free items, estimated costs, and capital expenditures.

NOTE: Round answers to the nearest whole dollar.

CAPITAL REVENUE AND EXPENDITURES (12.1 - 12.7)

This section gathers information on capital revenue and expenditures. Provide information for funds received and spent during the fiscal year report period only. If the library was awarded a grant, but only received part of the funds during the report period, report only the amount of the funds received, not the entire grant award.

Capital Revenue

Include funds received during the fiscal year report period for: site acquisitions; new building(s); additions to or renovations of existing buildings; furnishings, equipment, and initial collections for new buildings, building additions, or building renovations; computer hardware and software used to support library operations, to link to networks, or to run information products; new vehicles; or other one-time major projects.

Exclude revenue for: replacement and/or repair of existing furnishings and equipment, regular purchase of library materials, investments for capital appreciation, income passed through to another agency (e.g., fines), and funds unspent in previous fiscal year (e.g., carryover).

NOTE: Round answers to the nearest whole dollar.

PERSONNEL (13.1 - 13.46)

Include all positions funded in the library's budget whether those positions are filled or not. Report position figures as of the last day of the fiscal year. Include only paid employees. Do NOT include volunteers.

Report personnel in the appropriate categories based on the type of library work being performed rather than on an employee's educational qualifications.

The FTE (full-time equivalent/employee) calculator utilizes the IMLS/PLSC national standard for a full-time work week as 40 hours per week. Illinois libraries should report each staff member's hours per week based on the number of hours worked. If your library considers 35-39+ hours per week as a full-time work week, then report using those figures. DO NOT inflate the hours your library considers as a full-time work week in order to force the resulting calculation to equal 1 FTE. For national comparison purposes, your library must report the total hours per week based on your local standard. For example, for an Illinois library that considers 37.5 hours per week as a full-time work week, the FTE calculation reported nationally will be .9375 or .94 rather than 1.00.

SERVICE HOURS/LIBRARY VISITS (14.1 - 14.3)

This section collects information on the number of library service hours and visits. Use an actual annual count, if available; otherwise, calculate an estimate based on a typical week and then multiply by the number of weeks open.

Minor variations in actual public service hours need not be included; however, extensive hours closed to the public due to natural disasters or other critical events should be excluded from the annual calculation.

PROGRAMS & ATTENDANCE (15.1 - 15.17)Programs:

A program is any planned event which introduces the group attending to any of the broad range of library services or activities or which directly provides information to participants. Programs may cover use of the library, library services, or library tours. Programs may also provide cultural, recreational, or educational information, often designed to meet a specific social need. Examples of these types of programs include film showings; lectures; story hours; literacy, English as a second language, citizenship classes; and book discussions.

Count all programs, whether held on- or off-site, that are sponsored or co-sponsored by the library. Exclude programs sponsored by other groups that use library facilities. If programs are offered as a series, count each program in the series. For example, a film series offered once a week for eight weeks should be counted as eight programs.

Note: Exclude library activities delivered on a one-to-one basis, rather than to a group, such as one-to-one literacy tutoring, services to homebound, resume writing assistance, homework assistance, and mentoring activities.

Passive Programs:

A passive program is any planned event for which the patron can participate on their own (instead of at a designated time with a group). Registration is not required. A staff member may monitor the activity, but may or may not directly interact with the participants. Examples of these types of events include drop-in craft sessions, library scavenger hunts (when not done as part of a group), etc.

Count all passive programs, whether held on- or off-site, that are sponsored or co-sponsored by the library. Exclude programs sponsored by other groups that use library facilities. If programs are offered as a series, count each program in the series.

RESOURCES OWNED (17.1 - 17.9)

Libraries are required by statute [75 ILCS 5/4-10(3), 75 ILCS 16/30-65(a)(6)] to provide a statement as to the number and character of items in the library's collection available for use as of the last day of the fiscal year report period.

This section of the survey collects data on selected types of materials. It does not cover all materials (i.e., microforms, loose sheet music, maps, and pictures) for which expenditures are reported under Print Materials Expenditures, Electronic Materials Expenditures, and Other Material Expenditures. Under this category report only items the library has acquired as part of the collection and cataloged, whether purchased, lease, licensed, or donated as gifts that have been purchased, leased or licensed by the library, a consortium, the state library, a donor or other person or entity. Included items must only be accessible with a valid library card or at a physical library location; inclusion in the catalog is not required. Do not include items freely available without monetary exchange. Do not include items that are permanently retained by the patron; count only items that have a set circulation period where it is available for their use. Count electronic materials at the administrative entity level; do not duplicate numbers at each branch.

Electronic Collections

Report the number of electronic collections. An electronic collection is a collection of electronically stored data or unit records (facts, bibliographic data, abstracts, texts, photographs, music, video, etc.) with a common user interface and software for the retrieval and use of the data. An electronic collection may be organized, curated and electronically shared by the library, or rights may be provided by a third party vendor. An electronic collection may be funded by the library, or provided through cooperative agreement with other libraries, or through the State Library. Do not include electronic collections that are provided by third parties and freely linked to on the web.

Electronic Collections do not have a circulation period, and may be retained by the patron. Remote access to the collection may or may not require authentication. Unit records may or may not be included in the library's catalog; the library may or may not select individual titles. Include electronic collections that are available online or are locally hosted in the library.

Note: The data or records are usually collected with a particular intent and relate to a defined topic.

PATRON SERVICES (19.1-19.2)

This section gathers information on services the library provides to its patrons. Please fill in the information requested.

Reference Transactions

Reference Transactions are information consultations in which library staff recommend, interpret, evaluate, and/or use information resources to help others to meet particular information needs.

A reference transaction includes information and referral service as well as unscheduled individual instruction and assistance in using information sources (including web sites and computer-assisted instruction). Count Readers Advisory questions as reference transactions.

NOTE: It is essential that libraries do not include directional transactions in the report of reference transactions. Directional transactions include giving instruction for locating staff, library users, or physical features within the library. Examples of directional transactions include, "Where is the reference librarian? Where is Susan Smith? Where is the rest room? Where are the 600s? Can you help me make a photocopy?"

If an annual count is not available, then select a typical week and multiply by 52 to estimate the annual count.

One-on-One Tutorials

One-on-one tutorials are when a staff member spends a considerable amount of time tutoring or teaching a patron on a specific subject. Note that these are different from programs, which are put on for a group, and reference transactions, which are limited to information consultations (see definition above).

Memorandum

To: Evanston Public Library Board of Trustees
Evanston Public Library Facilities Committee

From: Karen Danczak Lyons, Library Executive Director
John Devaney, Facilities Manager

Subject: All Gender Restroom and Nursing Room addition.
2020 Library CIP

Date: February 17, 2020

Recommended Action:

Staff recommends the Library Board and Library Facilities Committee authorize the Library Director to execute a single-source agreement with Wight & Company 211 N. Clinton Street, Chicago, IL 60061 in the amount of $40,600 (includes $2,000 in possible reimbursable charges) for architectural & engineering services. Wight & Company's scope would include the creation of permit and construction documentation for the addition/creation of new spaces at the Main Library.

Funding Source:

Funding will be from the 2020 CIP: General Obligation Bond Fund. Account 187.48.4862.65515-480020.

Livability Benefit:

Health & Safety:

Improve restroom availability by offering an All-Gender single use restroom. This restroom will reside on the 3rd floor.

Offer a single use Family Lounge that would provide a quiet and private space for caregivers or nursing mothers. This area will reside within the Children's department on the 1st floor..

Built Environment:

Offer new experiences and accommodations at the Main Library.

Background:

In 2016 through the City of Evanston's RFQ process Evanston Public Library awarded

Wight & Company a contract to develop permit/construction documentation, and provide construction administration services for a major remodel at the Main Library. Wight & Company produced the full set of construction documents for the intended project therefore fulfilling that portion of their contract. Seeing the remodel was placed on an indefinite hold, Wight's contract was modified to reflect the scope that they had completed up to and until the decision was formally made. Wight & Company had no opportunity to perform any construction administrative services.

Wight's performance on the project development services was timely, extremely well done, and delivered within the allotted budget. EPL's best interests were always a priority for Wight.

The additional spaces will enable library staff and patrons to utilize these newly developed spaces on an immediate basis, based upon availability.
